Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little boy 6 years old. I want an air gun and some shot and a drum and a horn and a train that runs on a track. I wish you would bring Doodle a doll. Look out for the tom cat that he don't scratch you, and a wagon and a load stone.
DAIL FULLER.

Dear Santa:
I am a little six year old and I have all kind of toys and don't care for any more. I want a little light overcoat, gold ring. Santa I will be a good boy till you come. Don't forget my grandpa and grandma. So goodbye Santa.
ZEDDIE ONG.

P. S.—Come to the West Fork glass factory.

Dear Santa:
I am a little boy and I am going to let Frank Lee write my letter. I want a suit of clothes and a fire wagon and an air gun and some shot and a match, and don't come down the chimney, but come in the door, and watch that you don't fall on the stove and burn yourself.
From your old pal,
HOMER H. FULLER.
426 St. Clair street.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little boy five years old and I can not write a letter to you, and so I had my sister to write it for me. I thought I would write and tell you what I want for Christmas. I want a gun, and a ball, train, and a pair roller skates, and an automobile and a toy bear. I need not ask for candies, nuts and fruits for I know you will bring them. Oh, yes, I want a pair of leggings.
Yours truly,
HAZZETT TALKINGTON.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little boy eight years old. Will you please bring me a new over coat, a pair of high top shoes, two story books, a horn, skates, checker board, candy, nuts, apples, oranges, grapes and caps to shoot in my toy pistol and don't forget mamma and papa.
Your little friend,
WILLIS JACKSON.

Dear Santa:
Please send me a little beetle pup like the one I used to have, that made that funny noise, and please send me a little rooster that will crow, and please send me candy and a few nuts.
E. H. MORGAN.

Point Comfort.

NOTE—I wish to correct a letter that appeared in the Telegram a few days ago. My name was forged and it was all a life and nobody with any principal would do any thing like that.
BILLIE LOUCHERY.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl eight years old and they tell me you live in town and as it is so far I cannot come. I will write you what I want. I want a doll and a trunk for its clothes and a chair for my doll and a whole lot of candy.
In haste,
MAMIE WRIGHT.
Romines Mills, W. Va.

Dear Santa Claus:
I thought I would write and tell you what I want for Christmas. I am a little boy three years old so I have to get my big sister to write for me. I want a hobby horse, a sled, an engine with cars, a pair of leggings and a little red rocking chair, and a goat with horns and a beard. This is all I want, hoping I am not asking too much.
Yours truly,
CHARLES RICHARD STEALEY.

P. S.—Don't forget papa and mamma.

Dear Sandy Claws:
Bring us a Teddy bear, a key to American Literature, also one to our girls' hearts, and at cost three hours a day to sleep in. And please bring our class a nice assortment of orations, essays, songs, etc., for commencement day, and a photograph to deliver them. And if you will bring our teachers enough mercy to give each of us a share, we will give you a hug and a kiss sapiece.

I am a little boy 37 1-2 years, 2 months, 3 week, 5 days, two hours, 37 minutes and one-half old. I tell you what I want for Christmas: one toy rabbit and a little toy gun so I can kill rabbits without falling on them to kill them, as they are very expensive to fall on them and send me a real engine so I can learn to repair them.
Your little boy,

My Dear Santa:
I am a nice little boy and weigh 325 pounds. Please dear Santa send me a nice lot with a little house on it, so I can raise hogs and typewriters on it like the ones Truman Cunningham has, and be sure it is without encumbrances and be sure it is in Pig alley, near West End mill. I stay at the Walker house where the chimneys are large enough, and believe my socks from past appearances hold about three acres.
Lovingly your little friend,
WILLIE WILLIAMSON.
